For the Fall Semester of 2022, in person trainings were scheduled in person or via zoom individually for each satellite campus. These trainings were available separately for students and employees. OEC staff trained all Middle College Students, Residence Hall Staff as well as staff at individual colleges. Title IX training was also built into Faculty Orientation and the UAA staff onboarding process.

The Deputy Coordinator resigned from his position, which will be vacant as of January 30, 2023. Before further recruitment, the position will be assessed and/or amended to ensure the position description meets the current needs of the office. There continues to be stability amongst the investigative positions, both positions now post probationary status. A Civil Rights Investigator began in June 2021 to fill the vacancy that opened in May 2021. An additional Civil Rights Investigator position was added to the OEC team in December 2021 and filled in January 2022.

The statewide Vice Chancellors of Student Affairs have met to determine that the priority registration hold should be removed as a Title IX training incentive, i
