

TITLE IX ACTION CLASSIFICATIONS DEFINED

This work as a second all seconds are second by the Farity and Consultan This number represents all reports assessed by the Equity and Complian Offices during this time. Reports are received through an online form, in person, by email, phone outher method.
Jurisdiction provides the authority to investigate. Jurisdiction depends on number of factual elements, including the location of the alleged incident, affiliation of those involved, and any impact on campus. For example, if a non-student sexually assated a UA student off campus, UA would not hav Title IX jurisdiction to investigate. Supportive measures are made available the complainant.
Reports to the Equity and Compliance offices may include allegations tha not meet the definition for prohibited conducted under Title IX, such as a single comment of a sexual nature. While inappropriate, thissoftwat rise to the level of a Title IX policy violation. In these cases, supportive measure made available to the complainant and the issue is forwarded to the appropriate department for action under other applicable policies.
Often times a complainant in a sexual harassment or sexual assault case not want the university to proceed with an investigation. In these situration a Gatekeeper Analysis is completed to assess whether the University mu proceed despite the complainant's wishes. Factors include involvement of a pattern of offenses, predation, force, or involvement of a minor. In other cases, investigation mayoribe possible due to insufficient evidence to proceed with an investigation. Supportive measures are made available the complainants in both types of cases.
· ·
This number is a subtotal and represents the Titleports that are within University of Alaska jurisdiction, constitute a Title IX allegation, and where complainant supports investigation or the Gatekeeper analysis requires investigation.
If the complainant, the respondent, and the Title IX coordinator all agree t an informal resolution should be pursued, the Title IX coordinator will attempt to facilitate a resolution of the conflict that is agreeable to all parti Supportive measures areade available to the complainant and responder as appropriate.
Investigation is underway but has not been completed at time of reporting Supportive measures are made available to the complainant aspio ndent.
The respondent was found not responsible after a university Title IX investigator conducted an impartial investigation using the ponderance of the evidence standard, which requires a showing that it is more likely than not that conduct violating Title IX policy occurred. Supportive measures made available to the complainant and respondent.
The respondent was found responsible after a university Title IX investigation conducted an impartial investigation using the preponderance of the evidence standard, which requires a showing that more likely than not that conduct violating Title IX occurred. Supportive measures and remediare made available to the complainant and the respondent.

INITIAL ASSESSMENT CLASSIFIC DEIONED

*As defined in Board of Regents P

- SexBased Harassment Foundations for Higher Educations ted by ATIXA
- Clery Coordinato Training hosted by D. Staffod & Associates

UASResidence Life statifre offered in-person Title IX training in both the Fall and Spring semesters. Residence Life statifill be participating Title IX training on January 10, 202 The OE director Associate Director/Deputy Title IX position is position is expected be filled by February 2024.

The Department of Education is expected to release its new Title I) regulations later this year. When they ddAS OE@ill have to review and amend UA policy to remain in compliance.

ThestatewideOEC officebavedeveloped a collaborative relationship, assisting one another amongst staff changesswell asthroughidentified conflicts of interest. In addition, assistance and guidance from General Co has been prompt, response, and helpful.

The new director was able to receive appropriate trainings for her position soon after assuming the directorshaped was able togradually take on the full responsibilities of the position relatively quickly. She maintains a strong presence at UAS and alreadywell-connected with internal stakeholders and the liaisons at the committee