INITIAL ASSESSMENT CLASSIFICATIONS DEFINED

* As defined in Board of Regents Policy and University Regulations Chapter 01.04 per federal law August 14, 2020

Complicity	“Complicity” is any act taken with the purpose of aiding, facilitating, promoting, or encouraging an act of sex or gender-based discrimination.
Dating or Domestic Violence	“Dating violence” is violence committed by a respondent: a who is or has been in a social relationship of a romantic or intimate nature with the complainant; and b where the existence of such a relationship shall be determined based on a consideration of the following factors: i. The length of the relationship; ii. The type of relationship; and iii. The frequency of interaction between the persons involved in the relationship. “Domestic violence” includes verbal or physical assault, violating a protective order; terroristic threatening; burglary; criminal trespass; criminal mischief; harassment; arson; criminally negligent burning committed by a current or former spouse or intimate partner of the complainant; by a respondent with whom the complainant shares a child in common; by a respondent who is cohabitating with or has cohabitated with the complainant as a spouse or intimate partner; by a respondent similarly situated to a spouse of the complainant; or by any other respondent against an adult or youth complainant who is protected from that respondent’s acts under the domestic or family violence laws of Alaska. This definition does not apply to roommates in university housing unless the parties also meet one of the above definitions within this provision as well.
Interfering Consensual Sexual Conduct	Consensual sexual conduct that unreasonably interferes with other employees’ work or other students’ studies, or creates a hostile, intimidating or offensive working, living or learning environment.
Not Title IX Behavior	These are reports that do not fall under Title IX behavior. In these cases, supportive measures (if appropriate) are made available to the complainant and the issue is forwarded to the appropriate department for action.
